

14TH INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON STRUCTURAL HEALTH MONITORING

The International Workshop on Structural Health Monitoring is a biennial workshop that aims to assess customers complex challenges of today and tomorrow – and to identify emerging R&D challenges that are critical to structural health monitoring and management. The workshop is also intended to promote communication exchange of multi-disciplinary technology development to provide capabilities for increased mission effectiveness.

EMAIL

IWSHM-info@stanford.edu

WEBSITE

<http://iwshm.org>

MAJOR TOPICS

- Sensors / Actuators
- Sensor Networks / System Integration
- Multifunctional Materials & Structures
- Diagnostics / Signal Processing / State Awareness
- Prognostics / Health Management / Safety Assurance
- Digital Twin / SHM – Based Design
- Implementation / Validation / Certification
- Applications / Internet of Things (IoT)

